

Chairman Sir's Message on the occasion of "Teachers' Day"

Om Gurubhyo Namaha !

Hello teachers,

You are the cornerstones of this educational institution. You are the silent architects of dreams, helping students build a strong foundation for a brighter tomorrow. Your unwavering commitment to the betterment of our students is truly remarkable, and today, we come together to acknowledge and appreciate your invaluable contributions.

You are the mentors who encourage creativity, critical thinking, and innovation. You all serve as role models, not only in the classroom but also in how you conduct yourself, leaving a mark on the impressionable minds of our students.

In closing, on Dr Radhakrishnan's birthday, I would like to express our deepest gratitude to our dedicated and exceptional teaching faculty. Your commitment, passion, and unwavering support in shaping the future of our students are truly praiseworthy.

Happy Teacher's Day!
